Parties in want of Christmas presents should not forget that Nat. L.

Brown has removed to the new Hol leman building.

Col. Brown, of the National Hotel, will have a national celebration of his birth-day-it occurs on the 25th inst. We shall drink him a bumper.

All of the pulpits of the city will be filled to-day, and as the day will in all probability be pleasant, a full attendance at our churches may be expected.

A choice lot of nice walnut dressing case setts, cottage setts, bedsteads, bureaus, mattrasses, cribs, cradles, lounges, chairs, &c., can always be found at W. H. Morris & Co's.

A beautiful collection of Christmas presents, suitable for all classes, may be found at A. D. Royster's candy factory. A visit to their attractive store will gratify all who are in search of good things.

The Rev. C. H. Wiley will preach at Edenton Street M. E Church today at 11 o'clock, and the Rev. Dr. Burkhead at night. The Rev. J. B. Bobbitt will preach morning and evening at Person Street M. E.

"Swinging on the gate" would have been nice last night had it not been so cold. A fellow might have stood it if he had had a pocket stove along, but no amount of affection could have kept the female from freezing. Thus do atmospheric in. fluence get away with our most ten-

A hot lemonade is one of the best remedies for a cold. It acts prompely and efficiently, and has no unpleas. ant after effects. One lemon should be properly squeezed, cut in slices, put with sugar, and covered with a half a pint of boiling water. Drink just before going to bed and do not expose yourself the following day. This remedy will ward off any attack of chills and fever, if used promptly.

THE YARBOROUGH.-The Editor of the Newbern Times, speaking of his visit to Raleigh during the late session of the Masonic Grand Lodge of the State, says: "While in Raleigh we roomed at the Yarboroough House, Dr. Black-nall proprietor. Everything about this hotel is clean and neat; the sleening rooms all carpeted; bed and bedding clean; and most important of all is the cusine department. The table is well supplied with all the delicasies of the season, polite and at-tentive waiters. In fact, it has all the con enience of a first-class met-ropolitan hotel."

"Balm of Hurt Minds" -Leopold's Club House.

THE NORTHERN MAIL FOR RAL-EIGH.—We learn that the Postmaster iere is making arrangements for obtaining the northern mail for Raleigh by way of Goldsboro, owing to the change of schedule on the North morning by the Richmond and Dan- his home in Elizabeth city. ville and North Carolina Roads, but under the new arrangement the connection will be broken at Greensboro, thus cutting us off on that line, as the train from Charlotte will pass Greens boro about four hours before the train from Richmond arrives at that place The proposed arrangement is to have the northern mail for Raleigh sent right on by the night train from Weldon to Goldsboro so as to reach here at eleven a. m., instead of four p. m. of the same day. This will be five hours earlier than by the train from Weldon to Raleigh, and two to Raleigh. Our people will not be deprived of any mail facilities, as they will receive and send two Northern mails every day.

MOVEMENTS OF COTTON IN RAL-EIGH.-Receipts for week ending December 18th, 1875, 1910 bales; for same week last year 1173 bales; in crease in receipts for week this year 731 bales. Whole receipts since 1st September, 1875, to date, 25,031 bales; whole receipts corresponding time last year, 18,842 bales; increase in receipts to this dade, 7,189 bales.

It will be seen that our receipts for the week have largely increased over corresponding week last year; the market has been very active all the week and all cotton offering has been freely taken at full prices. Market closed 12g best grades,-cleaned stains lig to §.

THE HOP FRIDAY NIGHT.-The hop at the National Hotel Friday night, given by the Oak City Pleasure Club, was decidedly one of the most charming affairs of the season. The beaux and belles of Raleigh mingled together in the misty mazes of the a ticket securing accommodations at dance and in promenades-to say nothing of the tete a tetes until the wee swa' hours of morning admonished them that it was time to disperse.

THE BERGERS. - The Berger Fam- ed. Special trains for the exclusive ily (including of course, the inimi- use of the visitors will leave Washtable Sol Smith Russell,) gave their mac Railroad at 3 P. M. to-morrow second and last entertainment at and will land the excursionists at Tucker Hall last night, giving as on the previous night, entire satisfaction, the audience throughout being either entranced by the sweet music or convulsed with laughter at Russell's acting. We hope to see this universally popular company on our boards again next season.

CHANGE OF POSITION.—We learn that Capt. W. L. Thornburg has resigned the position of clerk to the Superintendent of the N. C. Division of the R. & D. R. THE CENTENNIAL EXCURSION .-Our readers may form some idea of the good times had in Philadelphia yesterday by the Centennial visiting party from Washington from the following in a Washington paper of Thursday. Gov. Brogden aud Col. Young joined the party in Baltimore. Says the Washington paper:

"The Centennial excursion from this city to Philadelphia to-morrow afternoon will be a fine affair. Some four hundred and fifty gentlemen, including the President, members of the Cabinet, Senators, Representa-tives and the correspondents of the leading papers have accepted invita-tions and received their credentials A ticket for transportation to Philadelphia and return is furnished to each one of the invited guests; also either the Continental or Girard Hotel, and an invitation from the citizens of Philadelphia to a dinner to be given at Horticultural Hall, on the Exhibition grounds, at 1 o'clock, P. The President, members of the Cabinet and Supreme Court will follow in a special car attached to the next regular train.

ALAMANCE ITEMS .- A correspondent from Graham, under date of Friday, says: "There was a big rabbit hunt in this county on Thursday. About forty persons were in the hunt, and some one hundred "cotton tails" were captured. "Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of Raleigh delivered a lecture here last night on The Literary Attractions of the Bible." It was an exceedingly inter esting and instructive lecture. Doctor visited the Graham High School to-day and delighted the teachers and pupils with an address to them in the Chapel of that insti-

Last evening. (Thursday,) Sheriff Hardie received over the Governor's signature a commutation to Penitentiary for life in the case of Robert McDonald, convicted of burglary, and sentenced to be hanged to day. To withhold comment on so flagran! an abuse of the pardoning power vested in the Executive, would be as unjustifiable as this act, which rightly arouses the indignation of our honest and law abiding citizens. A briefsketch of this negro's trial and condemnation may be appropriately introduced.

residence of Capt. F. J. Green was forcibly entered, and various articles were stolen, including a gold watch. This was shortly afterwards seen on the person of McDonald. He was arrested and gave conflicting accounts about the watch coming into his possession. Other circumstances, together with his notorious character, tended to corroborate the opinion of his guilt. He was tried at the January term of Cumberland Court, convicted without difficulty, and sentenced to death. An appeal was obtained. The Supreme Bench decided 'No error," and McDonald was resentenced. On this occasion Judge Buxton expressly stated "crime was on the increase in Cumberland county, and that he was determined, by a rigid example, to check it." Yet, as far as we can learn, the Judge dispatched a letter to Governor Brogden, asking a commutation of the sentence. If Judge Buxton can explain this inconsistency, he will find it more difficult to shun the sentiments of the community in which he resides. Despite his political sins he has always possessed the respect of the people here, and it is to be regretted that he should, through mistaken leniency, so unblushingly encourage vice and contempt of all law.

A penitentiary has no terrors to a negro. In going there he has little to forfeit, and he is generally well satisfied with a sufficiency of food and clothing. The gallows alone can restrain idle, shiftless negroes from violence, and the example of a hanging was needed in Fa etteville just now. For the past few years and more especially of recent date, housebreaking and license of every description has been rife No one has sufthe penitentiary for life-equivalent last sentence he made an attempt to Yet in the face of all this Judge Buxton intercedes for him, and the Governor thinks him a fit subject for raised consisting for the most part of ignorant negroes interspersed through the country, knowing nothing of the case, and governed only by To mercy when properly exercised no one with correct human feeling can object, but it calls for the utmost condemnation when by it, the lives and property of the unoffending are placed in jeopody.

The Philadelphia papers give acmode of heating buildings which is shortly to be introduced there. The principle is the utilization of the heat generated during the calcination of limestone, this being made to heat air or water, which is then passed into buildings to be heated through the usual system of distributing pipes, while the sale of the lime produced in the kiln more than covers the cost of the operation. It is claimed that this system is already applied to oth public and private buildings in England and France. As the Public

'It is certainly a very curious and interesting device, and well illusrates the modern tendency to seize light, heat and power of all sorts as generated in natural or artificial processes and turn it to some practical account. No American views Niagara with a pure appreciation of its sublimity, or without some mixture of a desire to "utilize" the mignly rush of waters in driving factory wheels. The engineer by the seashore wonders if that mighty ebb and flow of the sea cannot be made to run machines by its surplus energy. Erriesson is busy on his project of solar engines to run by the heat which the sun scatters so lavishly on the soil and housetops. This lime-burning project is humbler in its way, but it is in the same line of utilization of natural processes. The original apparatus of pipes and kiln must cost something, and we judge it chiefly applicable to large public structure and to extensive private ones like fatories rather than to dwellings."

The past ten days have been fruit ful of terrible calamities. Following the sinking of the Deutschland, with the drowning of one hundred perkilling and wounding of one hunquick succession Thursday's news of the coal mine disaster in Belgium, with the loss of one hundred and ten lives. Such a series of distressing accidents in the same space of time has rarely been witnessed.

'That," said the tramp, "is the top buck wheat; it has been used to keep the others warm; and I don't eat no coverleds." So he laid it one side.

Desperadoes-They Invade a Town to Rob It and Are Forted. The Charleston (West Virginia)

Courier says: On Wednesday night last, about 1 o'clock, the town of Raymond City was thrown into intense excitement by the appearance in the streets of twenty-four armed men, whose in-tention was to rob three stores at that place. The facts in the case are about as follows:

Twenty four men, all of whom lived on the waters of the Eighteen-Mile Creek, formed themselves into a band of robbers for the purpose stated above, and but for one of their party betraying them, their plans would have been fully carried out. The man who gave the information was forced to join the party under threats of murder, etc. After joining them he sent word to the parties whom they intended to rob, that they would be there on the following night and that they had better make some arrangements to resist them. When the merchants of Raymond City heard of their plans, they sues ceeded in getting thirty armed men and went into one of the stores (the one that was likely to be robbed first) and when the robbers made their ap-pearance they rushed out on them and put them to flight. We learn that the next morning fourteen of the party were captured The man who betrayed them has given the names of the entire party. A HEALTH-FR M TING STIMULANT.— Physicians, who can aliny ough to be the best judges of such matters, declare that wholesome stimulation is not desirable, but essential in many instances. THE UNIVERSITY RAILROAD. We are glad to see that at the meeting of the Trustees of the University Col. Carter gave his endorsement to the suggestions of the News in regard to the construction of a Railroad from some point on the North Carolina Railroad to Chapel Hill. The Board adopted his resolution to the effect that such road would greatly promote the efforts now being made by the State and by patriotic individuals to revive the University of North Carolina and assure its success.

There is no doubt that this would be the effect, and we hope the idea will not be suffered to slumber as a mere resolution on the records of the Board. It must be put into practical use. So many interests, too, besides those of the University are to be advanced, that active cooperation-with the necessary energy-of other powerful interests ought to be secured. The several Railroad interests are vitally interested by the large increase of their freight and travel from a new development. The owners of the Chapel Hill mine have a tremendous stake at interest, and should leave no stone unturned to secure the building of the road. The people of Chapel Hill are interested, because the road will be the means of the building up of the town and vastly adding to the value of property. The county of Orange is interested, because any increased value of property leads to a higher assessment and increase of its revenues.

We hope Col. Carter and others interested will, since the ball has been started, be active in keeping it in motion.

THE UNIVERSITY. Nothing is known to the outside public in regard to the proceedings of the Board of Trustees of the Uni versity at their recent meeting in this city except what is given in the report of the Secretary of the meeting published yesterday morning. Enough appears from that, however, to warrant the assertion that the first session of its new life has been an encouraging one, and promises healthy and vigorous life. In truth, the number in attendance was larger than could have been expected, because in September, when the exercises were opened, most young men had already entered institutions whose sessions commenced earlier in the season. There is no question that the number of students will be largely increased next session, for the management so far has been wise and prudent.

We are glad to call attention to one fact which must have its effect upon the prosperity of the i stitution. It appears by the report of the Faculty, that eighteen young men, forming themselves into a mess, boarded themselves for about nine others can do, and thus demonstrate that the University of North Carolina is one of the cheapest institutions in the country, and answers three Assistant Door-keeperships of the objection that it would be too Judges and Governors be lacerated expensive for any but the sons of rich men. Chapel Hill, in truth, is no longer the place to which idle sons of wealthy fathers resort to vie with each other in extravagance. Young men go there to study and to learn, and prize with a zest scarce ly ever before felt in the State, the opportunities so fortunately restored to them.

With regard to the Presidency we have no information, but infer that the present financial condition of the University does not yet justify the appointment of a President with the large salary required to secure the necessary high talent, qualifica-THE anti-subsidy bill of Judge tions and influence. The appointment is still deferred to a future day and in the mean time, the Chairman of the Faculty will at present per-

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.

We publish in our local columns a communication from Favetteville commenting with well merited severity upon the recent exercise of executive clemency, whereby a twice sentenced burglar was saved from his well deserved doom, and a life forfeited to violated laws, prolonged for the commission of fresh crime.

We think our correspondent has made a far statement of the case, and most temperately presents the oceasion which warms his just indignation. What hope is there that a people shall ever be exempted from the violence of the robber, the bloodthirstness of the murderer, if the tenderness of a judge makes him eat his own words? If, after having deliberately declared that crime was terribly on the increase, and that he was determined by a rigid example to check it; if after a second sentence solemnly pronounced, after a solemn reaffirmation of the case by the Supreme Court, the Judge interposes between his own judgment, and the convicted felon, whereby a justly forfeited life is spared, where shall the people look for protection? Judge Buxton may remember that it was this very tenderness of the Courts, or worse, that led to the troubles in Orange in 1869, where the doors of justice were slammed in the faces, of the people and where crime was legalized by the countenance of the Courts.

Far be it from us to arraign any one for being accessible to human sympathies. Judges are but men. with hearts as tender and sympathes as warm as other men. But their positions often call upon them to sacrifice personal feelings. They are the stern vindicators of the public rights. They cannot yield safely, to themselves or to the public, to im pulses which would be excusable in other men.

But it must be apparent that Judge Buxton has involved himself in deplorable inconsistencies. He has recognized the growing prevalence of crime. He has expressed more than once his determination rigidly to check it. He had every off, I should be able to see for myself than any other man in his community the force of a striking example to check the growing criminality. But yet he is charged with despatching a letter to the Governor to undo his own work, and to commute a sentence, the execution of which would have spread terror among evil doers, into one which has no terrors at all.

The Governor of course yielded, following out a line of conduct he seems to have marked out for himself to spare life on the faintest show of justification. In this case the reponsibility falls not so much upon him as upon those who presented a case so strong that Executive strength may well have vielded. It falls upon him and upon those whose stern courage should have been equal to their tenderness. We will do no one the injustice to suggest other motives. But we will suggest, that in the capacities of Judge or Governor, it must be remembered by these functionaries that the people have those rights of protection which the law guarantees to them; dollars a month. What they did, that justice has its claims which it will not yield to the indulgence of human sensibilities, and that society has its demands which must be enforced even if the tender hearts of by the painful necessity of carrying out inexorably the stern edicts of

The following letter, addressed to ex-Speaker Blaine, and appearing first in the Maine Standard, a Democratic paper, has excited so much mment and adverse criticism that the interview with its author which is appended will be of general inte rest as explaining some of the references in the letter:

Hon. J. G. Blaine : MY DEAR SIR: Eighteen months ago I told you that you could have New Jersey in 1876. I wish now to mphasize that statement. All our sople are for you, and we can carry the State beyond peradventure. Our danger is that the West will demand mination. This can also be averted, of course, by the union of New England and the Middle States, and strong votes from the South. A potent faction in our next Conven be the secret anti-Catholic rder. For one of a vast multitude I want to hold it

Yours very truly. JOHN Y. FOSTER. The Times reporter visited Mr. in Y. Foster, editor of the Newark

Evening Courier, at his house in Newark, to make inquiries relative to the above letter. "I suppose," said Mr. Foster, "that you wish to talk about that Blaine flasco."

Yes, sir," replied the reporter .-"Did you write the letter originally printed in the Maine Standard?" Yes, sir, I wrote that letter, or rather a letter substantially the same. There were some unimportant omissions in the published letter, but all matters of public interest appeared just as I wrote them." Mr. Foster then explained that the omissions of which he spoke were references to conversations with Mr Blaine. "The conversations," said he "occurred about a year and a half ago. I was talking with Mr. Blaine about his possible candidacy for the Presidential chair. He asked me what I thought of his chances in New Jersey. I told him that he could car-State by a good majority, provided that Mr. Fretinghuysen is not a candidate, and when in the letter I said, 'Our danger is that the West demand the nomination," I meant to have him understand that he was in no danger from Mr. Frelinghuysen. But that is not the portion of the letter that interests the public the most. The chief interest centres in the remarks about the 'secret anti-Catholic order,' and I will try to explain myself touching that point. My attention was first called to this matter during the controversy that prevailed in this State during 1874 and 1875 relative to the constitutional amendment that was in consideration forbidding the granting of public money for sectarian purposes. The amendment as finally cented by the people was :

'No donation of land or appropriation of money shall be made by the State or any municipal corporation to or for the use of any society, ociation or corporation "The most effective support of this amendment, as I soon discovered, came from the secret order of United American Mechanics, and as the varfare progressed I became convinced that the order was growing more numerous and powerful every week. And when finally the special election for the question of approval (by the of this amendment came off ast September, and this city, which and always been a Democratic city, gave a majority of 4,409 in fayor of ie amendment, I was confident that his order of United American Me chanies, whose foundation stone is nostility to sectarian legislation, was at the bottom of the whole matter. And this was the common talk with all intelligent people, all over New That was my starting point. About two weeks later a prominent Washington official, a member of the National Republican Committee, called upon me in Newark and gave me further information. He told m that the Order of United American Mechanics was growing with amazing rapidity all over the country that in every State of the Union di visions of the order had been established, and that when the next Pres-reason to know the flagrancy of this particular case. He knew better that the order would be, perhaps, the great directing power. He told me that there were at least a score of Congressmen at Washington, and a great many public officials, who were members of this order, and assured me that Gen. Grant himself was a deeply interested and active member. You notice that in my member. You notice that in my letter to Mr. Blaine I said, advising him to 'go in : "It can be arranged so that you can be initiated anywhere by one per-

"I did not say this from my own knowledge of the order, for I am not a member of it, but from the information of the official who said that he was then on his way by appointment to initiate Gen. Merritt, of New York, the recent Republican candidate State Tressurer in New York. it was not till some time later that I wrote to Mr. Blaine. Mean while the Baltimore city election had taken place, in which the Reform party coalesced with the Republicans. The 'Potato Bugs,' as the-e reformers were called, were no other than members of a secret anti-Catholic order. At any rate, that was my belief. was another thing. By invitation Gen. Grant was present at the New Jer ev State Fair held at Waverly. and was then the guest of Hon. Amos Clark, President of the State Agricultural Society. He rode about the grounds with Mr. Clark considerably, and I was informed that he continually conversed on the subject of sectarian legislation, expressing himself with considerable warmth in opposition to public grants of all kinds to sectarian institutions. And it was only a little later that the President delivered his strong anti-sectarian speech before the Army of the Tennessee at Des Moines. I was fully persuaded then that the views I had held were well grounded, and one day early in November I sat down in my business office and rapidly pen-ned the letter to Mr. Blaine. I sealed it and tossed it over to the office boy, telling him to take it to the Post Office. But Mr. Blaine never re

The prominence which he has attained has been reached through strictly legitimate means, and so far therefore, he deserves the enviable reputation which he enjoys This large measure of success is the result of a thorough and careful preparation for his calling and extensive reading during a long and unusually large practice, which have enabled him to gain high commendation, even from his professional brethren. Devoting his attention to certain specialties of the science he has so carefully investigated, he has been rewarded in a remarkable degree. In these specialities, he has become a recognized leader. The Erie Canal-A Scheme to be Carried out Under the Foreclo-London, Dec. 18 .- A default has been made in the payment of coupons of the Peruvian debt.

Hurst and Watkins, the Committee of the Erie bond holders in Eng-land, propose the following scheme to be carried out under the foreclosure by the Committee, of which Governor Tilden will be invited to take the Chairmanship. The plan proposes to give the bond holders voting power until a position of the undertaking is retrieved and a reduction of fixed liabilities to a level with the net revenue; by reducing the onerous rent charges, and also by reducing engagements of interest on Erie first and second mortgage bonds as follows: Holders of first mortgage bonds and of sterling 6 per cent. bonds shall receive mortgage bonds of the same class for interest at present rates to March 1st, 1876, thereafter until 1880, interest payable in gold at 6 per cent. and efter that time at 7 per cent., but the company shall be entitled to re deem prior to 1880 at 105. The Erie second mortgage, including incon vertible bonds. Two classes of gold sterling mortgage bonds running 90 years to be substituted: First, for 60 per cent. of the principal carrying nterest at 6 per cent., and payable in bonds of the same class from the dates of default until March, 1877, the preferred stock, and $6 in the hundred on ordinary stock, the shareholders receiving for amounts thus paid, third mortgage bonds to bear per cent. interest, payable only from the net earnings, and also shares in the reconstructed company. MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Cotton Market During the Past

Week. NEW YORK, Dec. 18 -At the Cotton Exchange during the week the market on spots has been somewhat irregular, and official quotations have been reversed on several days, clos ing firm at prices which show some advance in bester descriptions com pared with last week. There has more demand on spot from both exporters and spinners, but has been confined to the better grades, the common descriptions being neglected, and to a great extent nominal in value as a consequence. An advance in Liverpool strengthened the entire market at one time, but latterly Liverpool has en rather unfavorably affected by an increase of receipts. At the ports for future delivery the market has as usual fluctuated not a little, a variety of influences affecting prices.
